

History

Sha Sha is nestled on the tip of a wooded island (accessible by vehicle) named after Chief Sha Sha who fished and hunted in the area during the days of the Voyageurs.

Sha Sha is known for its friendly chipmunks that will eat peanuts from your hands and keep kids busy for hours.

Lodging

Sha Sha has 8 cabins tucked beneath the pines and overlooking beautiful Rainy Lake! The cabins provide a variety of sleeping arrangements, full kitchens, barbecues, showers, air-conditioning, daily maid service and much, much more!

Dining

Sha Sha serves up both lunch and dinner 7 days a week with specialties including our fresh walleye sandwich or homemade hamburger with all the fixings. You can also grab one of our famous long island tea's or drink of your choice from either our hand crafted red wood bar in the lodge or the outside cabana bar on a beautiful sunny day.

Gift Shop

One must not forget the gift for that special person that could not make the trip. We offer sweatshirts, t-shirts, jackets, sandals, mugs and many more souvenirs. The gift shop also offers all those little extras that you may have forgotten.

Amenities

If a relaxing day of fishing from our docks is not enough, you can always rent a boat & motor or a canoe and explore Rainy Lake. We can also provide you with a fishing guide for half and full days. Stop at the resort and pick up your off sale liquor, soda and ice before your day on the lake.

Fishing/Lake

Rainy Lake offers a world class fishery for walleye, small mouth bass, crappie and northern pike. The lake spans over 73 miles, 200,000 acres of surface water and more than 1,600 islands of beautiful pine and granite rock. Sha Sha offers panoramic views of Rainy Lake from each of our 11 decks and spacious, modern lodge, along with our lakeside fire pit and multiple docks that allow ample parking for our customers.

Attractions

Voyageurs National Park headquarters is located a mile south of Sha Sha and is the only inland water-based park in the National Park System. The park put into operation a 49 passenger touring vessel in 2010 with excursions leaving daily. In addition to the excellent fishing, the park also offers numerous hiking trails and breathtaking site seeing.
